The appellant may submit a written request to withdraw an appeal at any time prior to the decision of the judge.

10.07 Compliance of Appointing Authority/Appellant

A. In the event the presiding judge orders the respondent to reinstate the appellant with or without back pay for such period as the presiding judge deems appropriate, the respondent shall immediately do so.

B. The presiding judge has full authority to review all alternatives, including reinstatement, suspension, demotion, or termination, and to allow reinstatement of the appellant with certain remedial actions with which the appellant must comply such as counseling, a probationary period, etc.

C. The decision of the presiding judge is final, and the appointing authority must immediately comply with such decision.

RULE 11 - CLASSIFICATION PLAN

11.01 Classification Plan - Nature

A. The classification plan, as approved by the presiding judge, shall include for each class of positions an appropriate title and a class specification.

B. Changes in Plan: The presiding judge of the county may establish new classes and divide, combine, alter or abolish existing classes.

11.02 Interpretation of Class Specifications

A. Class specifications (job descriptions) are descriptive and explanatory; they are not restrictive. Individual illustrations of a class shall indicate typical duties and responsibilities, but shall not be used to indicate exclusion of other appropriate duties and responsibilities which may be deemed in the best interest of the court service by the appointing authority.

B. "Minimum qualifications" are comprehensive statements of the minimum requirements as to education, experience and other qualifications required to meet statutory requirements or to help determine an appointee's ability to perform the work properly.

1. When minimum qualifications are increased, incumbents shall be "grandfathered", unless an incumbent will be unable to comply with law.

2. All persons applying or holding any position in the classified service shall be required to meet the following general qualifications: integrity, honesty, sobriety, dependability, industry, thoroughness, accuracy, good judgment, initiative, resourcefulness, courtesy, ability to work with others, ability to assure and fulfill duties and responsibilities of employment, good health and mental and physical abilities compatible with the work assignment.

3. If the position requires driving, the applicant or employee must have a valid Arizona driver's license, minimum liability insurance per state law, and is expected to drive safely.

4. The foregoing general qualifications shall be deemed to be minimum qualifications of each class specification, and need not be specifically listed on any job description.

RULE 12 - PAY PLAN

12.01 Purpose

To provide salaries which are consistent within a class of positions and which are fair and equitable considering the functions required by the specifications for a class, each class shall be assigned a grade, and the salary range for that grade shall be established by steps within it.

12.02 Basic Pay Plan

The basic pay consists of grade and salary steps adopted with these rules and guidelines. The court administrator, in conjunction with the affected appointing authorities, may make recommendations to the presiding judge of the county for periodic changes or adjustments of the basic pay plan due to factors such as comparable pay for similar positions within the county and state, the county's financial resources, labor market and other relevant factors.

12.03 Entry Salary

The entry salary for a position will be that for step one of the grade for the position. However, the appointing authority may appoint a new employee at step two or three, if the employee's education and experience justify it. Under unusual circumstances the appointing authority may apply in writing to the presiding judge for approval of placement of a new employee above step three.

12.04 Salary Adjustments

A. Range Adjustment: If a different salary range is applied to a class of positions, all persons employed in that class shall have their ranges adjusted on the same effective date. Employee salaries will be adjusted to at least the base of the new range.

B. Promotion: The salary of an employee who is promoted will be increased 2.5% per pay grade, to a maximum of 10%, except that the new salary must be within the pay range and on the closest step for the new class. (amended 6/11/92)

C. Demotion: The salary of a demoted employee may be reduced 2.5% for each pay grade difference, to a maximum of 10%, except that the new salary cannot exceed the maximum range for the lower class and must be placed on the step closest to the amount of reduction. (amended 6/11/92)

D. Transfer: The salary of an employee who is reassigned or transferred to a position in the same class, or to another class with the same pay range shall receive the same salary prior to transfer. If a county employee from another class with a different pay grade is transferred to judicial service, the appointing authority will make the salary's similar, within 2.5%, except that the new salary must be within the range of the class being transferred into and on a step within the Judicial Pay Plan.

(amended 6/11/92)

E. Unsatisfactory Promotional Probation: The salary of an unsuccessful promotional probation employee who is returned to the previous position shall be returned to the previous salary, plus any pay range adjustment which would have occurred subsequent to promotion.

12.05 Performance/Step Increases

A. Nature: The Judicial Merit System uses a system which establishes pay grades for each class, with incremental step increases based on performance and longevity. Step increases should be preceded by a performance evaluation, to demonstrate adequate performance of duties and responsibilities. A step increase is not a right of an employee, but is a salary increase tied to job performance and time on the job. The appointing authority will have exclusive authority to approve step increases.

B. Step Increase Eligibility

An employee shall become eligible for consideration of a step increase from step one to step two after the first six months of employment, to step three after the first year of employment, to step four after the first two years of employment, and to further step increases every two years thereafter. Step increases can be withheld up to 180 days, if the employee's performance evaluation indicates corrective action is needed, or/or a step increase is not meritoriously deserved. Subsequent step increases, if meritoriously appropriate, will be based on the end of the extended period for the withheld step increase, not on the employee's hiring anniversary date.

12.06 Overtime

A. Officers and employees whose salaries are set by state law and governed by A.R.S. 38-601 shall not receive overtime, compensatory time or any compensation in excess of the salary provided.

B. The presiding judge of the county, in consultation with the court administrator, court appointing authorities, or anyone deemed appropriate shall designate each class of positions in the court service as one of the following:

1. Positions ineligible for overtime compensation; and
2. Managerial or supervisory positions eligible for compensatory time only; or
3. Professional, clerical, or technical positions eligible for compensatory time or overtime pay not to exceed one and one half times the employee's normal rate of pay.

C. Subject to the availability of appropriated funds, law, or the interest of the court service, an appointing authority may offer professional, clerical, or technical employees the option of overtime pay or compensatory time.

D. In general, all unclassified positions designated in these rules are ineligible for compensatory time or overtime.

E. In general, all supervisors, professionals who do not manage a caseload, or administrative staff are eligible for overtime or compensatory time at a rate at which they are currently paid.

F. In general, professionals who manage a caseload, clerical, or technical employees are eligible for overtime compensation or compensatory time at one and one half times their rate of pay for all time worked over 40 hours in a work week, excluding holidays, sick and vacation leave.

G. No employee shall work overtime unless authorized to do so by an immediate supervisor or the appointing authority. Certain classes may be able to work beyond normal work hours based on specific circumstances preapproved by the appointing authority or immediate supervisor.

H. Overtime shall consist of hours worked by a full time employee in excess of 40 hours per week.

I. Holidays and any type of leave do not count as hours worked for the purpose of time and a half compensation for overtime. Overtime accrues only where the employee actually works more than 40 hours.

J. No compensatory time will be accrued over 40 hours.

K. Supervisors and appointing authorities should minimize overtime and compensatory time accruals through good management techniques, but will never allow employees to work under any circumstances more than 40 hours per week without compensation per these Rules.

12.07 Pay Periods

Pay periods shall be bi-weekly (26 per year).

12.08 Separation Pay

A. In addition to any wages due at the time employees are separated from court employment, they shall be paid at their regular hourly rate (overtime rate shall not be used) all accrued vacation credits and accumulated compensatory time.

B. Wages, vacation credits and accumulated compensatory time shall be paid to the heir, beneficiary or estate of a deceased employee.

C. Upon separation, all accrued sick leave credits will be forfeited except that an employee eligible for participation in the State Employees Retirement System and who has accumulated one thousand hours or more of sick leave is eligible on retirement to receive seven hundred fifty dollars.

D. No severance pay shall be permitted.

RULE 13 - ATTENDANCE, HOLIDAYS, AND LEAVE

13.01 Basic Work Week and Hours of Work

Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, the regular basic work week for full time court employees shall be forty hours, normally consisting of eight (8) hours per day, Monday through Friday. Modifications of this provision may be made for specific job requirements by the appointing authority, with the approval of the presiding judge, or the presiding juvenile court judge for juvenile court, subject to any federal or state statutory or constitutional limitation relating to hours of work.

13.02 Holidays

A. All employees, except temporary employees, shall be allowed time off with pay for any holiday provided in A.R.S. 1-301 (except those listed in paragraphs 1, 5, 7, 9, and 11 of subsection A) unless required by a court department to work to maintain essential court services.

B. Employees who ordinarily work forty hours per week, and are required to work on a legal holiday, or whose normally scheduled day off falls on a holiday, shall be compensated (as provided in A.R.S. 38-608) by either:

1. Commensurate compensatory time off with pay; or

2. Unused sick leave credits shall accrue without limitation.

The appointing authority may require the employee to submit substantiating evidence, including, but not limited to, a certificate from a licensed physician or other licensed health care practitioner after three (3) consecutive working days absence, or the working day before or after a holiday. If the appointing authority does not consider the evidence adequate, it shall disapprove the sick leave request and change the time taken to annual leave, compensatory leave, or leave without pay. Any abuse of sick leave is grounds for disciplinary action.

military leave accompanied by a copy of the employee's military orders.

A. Any unauthorized absence of an employee from duty shall be considered an absence without leave and deduction of pay may be made for such absence.

B. An unauthorized absence shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action by the appointing authority.

C. An employee who is absent three or more consecutive work days without authorization, is considered to have resigned. However, if the appointing authority finds there are extenuating circumstances concerning the absence, the appointing authority may designate the absence as leave with or without pay.

The personnel department will furnish employees with authorization forms which must be signed by the employee, authorizing the compensation to be sent to the employee in care of the County of Yuma. The form shall be attached to the supervisor's report of injury. Once the Workers' Compensation check has been received by the county and the amount of the Workers' Compensation benefit verified, the check will be signed over to the county by the employee.
